Parent Expectations

As the Parent/Guardian of a Junior Sailor participating in any GYC Junior Sailing Program activity I will:

- Review the Guilford Yacht Club Junior Sailing Program Code of Conduct - Camper Expectations with my child and insure that they understand what is expected of them
- Support the Junior Sailor behavior expectations as set out in the Junior Sailor Code of Conduct
- Respect the rights, dignity and self-worth of individuals and refrain from criticizing others. This includes my interactions with instructors, counselors, program staff, GYC employees and other parents. I will not criticize or discipline any camper that is not my child, whether I know them personally or not.
- Support the coaches and program staff knowing that they have my child's best interest at heart. I will respect their decisions, direction and authority
- Allow the coaches to perform their duties without interference
- Be a good ambassador - behave in a manner that represents and promotes the program, the club and the sport favorably
- Exemplify high standards in language, manner, punctuality and courtesy
- Ensure participants are adequately prepared to participate by insuring they are well rested, on time and properly equipped
- Notify program staff if a participant will be absent for any reason

I agree to abide by the Parent Expectations. I recognize that my child's participation in the GYC Junior Sailing Program is a privilege, and not a right. I understand that if I, or my child, do not abide by expectations as set out by the Code of Conduct, my child may be temporarily or permanently suspended from participation. I understand and agree that I will pay for any damage caused by my child to equipment, GYC property or others.
